Number 30

Thursday, April 18, 2013

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 10:30 a.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Rabbi Schneur Oirechman of Chabad Lubavitch of the Panhandle in Tallahassee, upon invitation of Rep. Rader:

Good morning. Always when I come here, I like to begin with an act of goodness and kindness—putting a dollar in the charity box. I believe this is the place where goodness and kindness spread throughout the state.

Almighty God, Light of the Universe, bestow Your favor upon the members of this august body as they gather here to devise just laws, with firm knowledge that You are the ultimate ruler of all. Bless the honorable members of the House of Representatives and its honorable Speaker, Will Weatherford, who are entrusted by the people to make laws that will benefit our beloved sunshine state.

This coming Wednesday is the 14th day of the month of Iyar on the Jewish calendar, which is the biblical holiday of the second Passover. When the Holy Temple stood in Jerusalem, this day served as a second chance for those who were unable to bring the Passover offering on the eve of the first Passover, one month earlier. My personal mentor, Rabbi Menachem Schneersohn, the renowned Lubavitcher Rebbe of blessed memory, a spiritual leader for Jews and gentiles, explained the eternal significance of the second Passover: If we have not yet succeeded, God arranges another chance for us to do better. Even if a person fails, that person is not a failure if he or she takes full advantage of the second chance. It's never too late.

Almighty God, we gather here to work to make Your world a better place, improving the lives of the citizens of our state. In the spirit of the second Passover, the festival of freedom, grant us all a second chance to pass over and overcome all stumbling blocks and be all that we can be. Make us strong so we can stand up to personal and political challenges and make this world a better place. May we merit the coming of the redemption, true peace, prosperity, and security by increasing our acts of goodness and kindness. And let us say, Amen.

HR 9115—House Resolution A resolution recognizing April 16, 2013, as "Healthcare Decisions Day" in Florida.

WHEREAS, The Florida Bar provides the specifics of Florida's advance directives law and offers a model form for patient use, and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that only approximately 20 percent of Floridians have executed an advance directive and that less than 50 percent of severely or terminally ill patients have an advance directive, and

WHEREAS, one of the principal goals of Healthcare Decisions Day is to encourage hospitals, nursing homes, assisted living facilities, continuing care retirement communities, and hospices to participate in a statewide effort to provide clear and consistent information to the public about advance directives, as well as to encourage medical professionals and lawyers to volunteer their time and efforts to improve public knowledge and increase the number of Floridians with advance directives, and

WHEREAS, other organizations throughout Florida are encouraged to endorse this event and express their commitment to educating the public about the importance of discussing health care choices and executing advance directives, and

WHEREAS, as a result of Healthcare Decisions Day in Florida, the hope is that more Floridians will have conversations about their health care decisions and execute advance directives to make their wishes known, and fewer families and health care providers will have to struggle with making difficult health care decisions in the absence of guidance from the patient, NOW, THEREFORE,
